

Keeping InterActive Notebooks in History:

THE LEFT SIDE: OUTPUT

The left sides (output) of your notebook will be used to demonstrate your understanding of the information from the right side (input) of the page. You work with and interact with the information you have been exposed to in creative, unique and individual ways. The left side incorporates and reflects how you learn history as well as what you learn in history.

What goes on the Left Side? Outputs goes on the left side! Left side items include, but are not limited to:

- ✓ Warm-Up Questions (SYBs) and Answers
- ✓ Textbook Critical Thinking Questions
- ✓ Worksheets that Summarize Concepts
- ✓ Analysis or Quickwrites
- ✓ Reflection Writing
- ✓ Flowcharts
- ✓ Your interpretations of information
- ✓ Worksheets with practice or review
- ✓ Many output options are provided on the next two pages

Things to Know About the Left Side:

- ✓ Every left side page gets used
- ✓ Use color...It helps the brain learn and organize information.
